A Brief History of the Coward Reunion

The annual Coward reunion began as a birthday party for Nathan Coward on his 74th birthday, June 12, 1892. It continued as a reunion even after his death on February 22, 1909. On the occasion of the first "birthday party" it was agreed that the family would meet every year during his life to continue the celebrations, rotating from one home to another beginning at the home of the eldest child, Clara Coward Smith. It took several days to prepare for the celebration. At that time, the family at whose home the reunion was held was responsible for preparing all the food and for gathering all the plates and utensils.

Nathan Coward was a cattle farmer and owned several hundred acres of land and a few slaves. He was married twice, to Jane Rogers Coward and to Sophia Hedden Coward whom he married after the death of Jane in 1885. Jane was a native of Buncombe County, but moved with her parents to a place on Cullowhee Creek. Nathan and Jane had 10 children: Minerva Emeline, Clara Almira, Tolvin Berry, Jonathan David, Martha Samantha, Mary Alice, Oscar Bowman, John Hamilton, Sallie Jane, and Robert Rogers. Sophia Hedden married Natha when she was 16 years old, in October 1885. Nathan and Sophia had four children: John Homer, Frances Emeline, Benjamin Franklin, and Jane Hedden. Minerva Emeline died in childhood and John Hamilton died as a young man.

In this space next newsletter will be brief histories of the children and their families.

The 111th Coward reunion will be held on June 9, 2002 at the Pavilion in Cullowhee (the park on the campus of Western Carolina University).

The Dave Cowards Party Together

Quite a large number of the Dave Coward branch of the family got together on Saturday, June 9 and spent a wonderful afternoon and evening. The family met at the home of Lynn and Jim Riggsbee in the Yellow Mountain Community. Several generations were in attendance and a large time was had by all. The "cousins", Trudy Adams, Elaine Nichols, and Sue Vail giggled like school girls and recalled their many adventures in the Cullowhee area. Many of the younger generations were also present as well. Luckily, the house is removed from near neighbors and no one was disturbed!

Did any other family get together? Let me know!

TRIBUTE PAID TO LEWIS J. SMITH

The Lewis J. Smith Association paid tribute to our relative, Lewis J. Smith on the 100th anniversary of his death (May 22, 1901) at their annual meeting held at the East Laporte Baptist-Methodist Church on June 16, 2001.

The association, which promotes history and education, is named for Lewis J. Smith, a founder of the school that is now Western Carolina University.

After teaching in Haywood County, he enlisted in Company C, 29th Regiment, North Carolina Troops and served during the Civil War.

After the war he was married to Clara

Coward Smith and they became the parents of 12 children. Needing a larger place to live they built a house in the "Painter" community that is now part of Cullowhee. As noted by his daughter Nannie Smith McGuire, "My father was not one to live in a community long without a school and church." So the Smiths donated an acre of their own land to establish a one-room subscription school. Liberty School was constructed on that site.

In 1888 Smith was elected to represent the 42nd state senatorial district which encompassed Jackson, Macon, Swain, Graham, Clay and Cherokee counties.

THE STATE NURSE: FLORENCE "MAC" THOMPSON

The following was written by Clay County poet, Brenda Kay Ledford, to honor Florence "Mac" Thompson.

For forty years Mac fought
Polio, diphtheria, whooping cough,
All diseases that threatened
The health of mountaineers.

She worked to heal
The bleeding hillsides,
To feed the hungry
Comfort the brokenhearted

She helped rid poverty
From the rural region.
She worked for power
To light dark homes.

And brought joy to sad
Faces filled with pain.
She gave hope to patients
Who gave up on life

The state nurse traveled
Muddy roads and forded
Shooting Creek to reach
Sick, bedridden folks.

For forty years Mac Thompson
Touched the lives of people.
She cared for mountaineers
With heartfelt love.

News from the "Family"

Dave Coward Family

Richard Nathan Tayloe, son of Judy and John Tayloe, graduated from UNCW on May 19, 2001. Nathan, like some of his cousins, was on the 5 year plan and everyone (especially his parents) was excited that he will now be on his own. Congratulations, Nathan!

Mary and Rob Diaz went on a Mediterranean cruise on May. Lynn and Elaine kept Ana and Zach, the 7 year old twins. We survived! The Diaz family will move into a new house sometime if Mary doesn't kill the contractors first. Her patience is at an end!

Lee Tayloe has moved out of his parents home (a rite of passage to adulthood) and his mother, Judy Nichols Tayloe was so distraught that she ate 4 bowls of ice cream at one sitting. Is eating to assuage depression a Coward trait? Just wondering.

Sally Norton Family

Luther Norton had surgery for colon cancer on June 8. He is doing fine.

Hilda Norton Hales' colon cancer is in remission and she is doing fine.

Ray Hooper had a heart attack on June 7 and was unable to attend the reunion. He is recovering well..

Clara Coward Smith Family

Catherine Davis Rideout has joined the alumnae relations staff of Meredith College as director of alumnae and parent relations. She will plan and execute all alumnae programs. Catherine holds a bachelor's degree in English from Meredith.

Thanks for the money...and could you send more?

Thanks to all of you who have contributed money to the Coward Family Newsletter.

Many thanks to Marilane Bird Nichols for making memorial contributions to the Coward Family Newsletter. Marilane made contributions in the names of Miriam Stillwell Allen and Rachel Coward Wilson.

As you know, the cost of printing and mailing of about 300 copies of the Coward Family Newsletter is very expensive. (Production if free!) We did not collect enough at the reunion and through other donations to cover the cost of this newsletter. I do have some cushion since Trudy left me a positive balance, but this issue will use up most of the reserve.

So, if you have not made a contribution, please consider doing so, either through direct contribution or through a memorial or honorarium contribution. I will send an acknowledgement to the person being honored or to the family of the person being remembered. You may mail your contribution to me at the address on the last page of this newsletter. I will love you forever!

Notes From Lynn's Desk

Meet Your Family: Carolyn Ruth Coward

Carolyn Ruth Coward is a member of the Talvin Coward branch of our rather extended family. She is the daughter of Talvin Coward and Ruth Brown Coward. She has a sister, Joy Anderson, and two brothers, George Talvin and Robert Charles. She lives in Tallahassee, Florida

Two of the joys in Carolyn's life are her two grandchildren, Meagan Ruth Ramba (age 4) and Harley David Ramba (almost 1). They live in Tallahassee with their parents, David and Judy, and Carolyn has much opportunity to be with them.

Carolyn says that her "real" education occurred when she took a trip to Europe after completing school. She sailed to the Strait of Gibraltar, a trip that took 7 days in weather that had at least one day when the use of ropes to hold on was necessary. Looking on the bright side, Carolyn said that was okay since they needed the ropes for dancing anyway.

Carolyn had many adventures, most of them hilarious, as she visited France, the Spanish Riviera, Casablanca, Malaga, Monaco, Florence, Rome, Tel Aviv, Capri, Austria, Germany, Holland, Sweden, and England.

One of her (mis)adventures involved trying to get the luggage of 4 young ladies into a small car which Carolyn described as a French VW. Apparently, the girls entertained some Spaniards who were in town for a festival for quite a long time and, guess what, nobody helped...they just enjoyed the show!

She also had a little scare in East Germany (before the fall of the Soviet Union and the Berlin Wall) when their passports were taken and they were detained because their driver took a wrong road. They were eventually freed and made haste getting to Berlin!

Carolyn, write us a book!!
