

The will of William DeLoach of Brunswick County, Va., dated 25 March 1745 and proved on 3 March 1747, is recorded in Brunswick County Will Book 2, page 140. By this will he disposed of his estate in the following manner.

To wife Eleanor 500 acres of land (the plantation whereon I now live together with the lands thereunto belonging) for the term of her natural life, two female negroes to be at her own disposing, and a negro boy during the term of her natural life.

To son Francis the 500 acres of land and the negro boy which were given first to Eleanor during the term of her natural life, 400 acres of land on the south side of Wild Catt Swamp in Northampton County, N.C., and four negroes.

To daughter Martha (wife of Harmon Hill) two negroes and a chest with key thereto.

To daughter Anne (wife of William Hill) three negroes, two cows, and two calves.

To granddaughter Cela Hill (daughter of William and Anne Hill) one cow and calf.

To son William two negroes.
