NOTE to American genealogists of color: Edmund's son William Fleetwood removed to Chariton Co MO by 1821 and may have received the negro girl named Betty upon the death of his mother, Winifred, in 1840.

"Elizabeth" FLEETWOOD, black, age 65, b. NC, appears as head of household #646 in the 1870 Chariton Co MO census, with others appearing to have Fleetwood surname: James, 28; Simon, 20; Walter, 10; Richard, 7--all black, all b. MO.

In 1880 Chariton Co MO census, Town of Triplett, household #16: Surname W(...illegible), Ja(?)mes, black, age 42, farmer, b. NC and parents b. NC; PULLIAM, Walter, black, 18, son; PULLIAM, Richard, black, 16, son; GIVENS, Lewis, black, 16, nephew; GIVENS, Woodson, black, 16, nephew--all minors were b. MO; "Bettie" FLEETWOOD, black, age 73, b. NC and parents b. NC, relationship to head of household "mother".

In 1900 Betty FLEETWOOD, black, age 90, appears in Triplett, Chariton Co MO census! I have misplaced my transcript but promise you she is still there. I hope this information will be helpful.
