

The Will of John Tylden Senior of Crotehole in the parish of Benynden, 12 September 1463. To be buried in the churchyard of St. George of Benynden. To the high altar there are 3s. 4d. To every light of the church 20d. To the church two candles or torches of the value of 13s. 4d. The residue of all goods, not bequeathed, to wife Johan and sons John, Robert, and Thomas Tylden, in equal portions. My wife and sons John and Robert, executors. (Translated from Latin.):

I John Telden of Benynden the “elthry:. 14 September 3 Edward IV. Out of all my lands and tenements being in the hands of John Heytherst, Witt Nynne, and Simon Tylden, my feofees, Jone my wife shall have 6 marks a year during her life. My feofees shall divide all my lands and tenements to my three sons evenly. Each of my two daughters shall have 20 marks at her marriage or age twenty-five years. If son Thomas die before he come to lawful age, etc. (No witnesses or probate.) (Archdeaconry of Canterbury, Vol.1, fo.19.)”(English Origins of New England Families, publised by NEGHS