

Will: John Wynns, at Winnsor 10 Feb 1750 proved May Ct 1753

. . ."being (I thank God) in my proper senses..."

Son James Boon (sic) - my manor plantation where I now live, also that land I had of Robert Forster, provided he disclaims a title to William Evans for 111 acres where he now dwells, valued at six pounds with interest since 1746, also give him Negroes Charles and Moll, and my best desk.

Daughter Mary Anney - lands I bought of Peeke & Hollum, also Negroes Tom and Priscilla.

Son Watkin William Wynns - my ferry plantation, including the lands I bought of John & Treddle (?), since called the Blind Islands, reserving one-third use of same for my wife Sarah during her widowhood, also leave him Negroes Ceasar and Cader.

Daughter Sarah Amelia - my plantation called Morrisses and my plantation called Cuba, also the land I bought of Mary Howcott, also Negroes Mingoe and Anna.

Son John Augustus - my land called Bridge Neck, also 400 acres of lightwood land, also slaves Rachell and Arthur.

Youngest daughter Wynney Caroline - land called Sharp's Neck, part of William Bush's survey, reserving the use of same for my wife during her lifetime.

My late apprentice Anne Reason may have a cow and a calf, etc and 100 acres. "if she marey by my wife's cousins."

Remaining estate to my wife Sarah and legacies to my heirs are to paid when my sons are twenty-one and to my daughters when they are sixteen.
