

Will of Dennis [x] MacClendon 19 Jan 1725/26 - Bertie Prect.

"....being sick and weak of body..."

-- son Dennis MacClendon - my manner plantation where I now live containing 420 acres.

-- son John MacClendon - plantation, part of Nicholas Session's survery containing 150 acres

-- daughter Mary MacClendon - 640 acres on the Half Moon.

-- daughter Elizabeth MacClendon - 640 acres lying between the fork of Quicoson and Loosing Swamp and Phillips MacGuire may have 200 acres of said tract and I give my brother Thomas MacClendon my power of attorney to acknowledge same, provided the said Phillip pay fifteen barrels of pitch.

-- wife Margaret MacClendon - horse and cart.

-- my two young breeding mares are to be divided among my children from the eldest to the youngest.

-- to my four said children - cows and calves each and four pewter basins which they may have as they come to the age of sixteen.

-- I have 104 barrels of pitch due me, which I desire my father John Early and my brothers Francis MacClendon and Thomas MacClendon to look after and freight it away to New England. My Negroes shall work each summer at making a crop of pitch to be sent to New England.

-- wife - 320 acres on the Long Branch. Remaining estate to my wife.

EX: father, John Earlory, brothers Francis MacClendon and Thomas MacClendon

Wit: James Page, Nicholas Fairless