Dear Daddy,

I sure enjoyed spending this last weekend with you. I just can't seem to get enough! I consider it an honor and a privilege to have been able to take care of you and offer you food and drink (even though you didn't want it).

Rob says to say hi and he hopes you are feeling good. Zach wants to know if you are still weak. He also says he is sorry you are sick. Ana says she wants you to feel better.

I miss you and wish I could have stayed longer, but am grateful for the time we have had together. I will be checking on you daily and hope to hear that you are having good days. Each good day is a victory and I will celebrate all of them!

I love You! Merny Ro
