

Will of Bryan Maclandins 29 Dec 1687 - prob 20 Feb 1688 Barbados in the Parish of St Philip and island of Barbados,
Bryan Maclandins Planter being very sick and weak

First, I leave to my loving son Dennis Mclandens and his heirs all my Estate both Real and Personall provided he make demands of the same within two years after my decease. If not heard of within the time then that part of my Estate hereby given to him I give to my Executor hereafter named.

Secondly to my loving kinsman Mr. Dennis McMarro & his wife the just sum of 20 pounds to be paid to him at two equal payments within three years after my decease.

Thirdly unto my friends Mr. Thomas Wakely my red young heifer which is now in my possession as a token of my love for him & his wife's kindness to me.

I do hereby make & appoint my worthy & trusty good friend Mr. Thomas Dubois, Merchant, to be sole Executor of this my will not doubting but out of the Kindness he hath shown me that he will forebear for some time from [liquidating] my estate for what I am indebted to him for the benefit of my son's Interest and the payment of my legacies. In witness hereof I have here unto set my hand & seal this twenty ninth day of December & in the fourth year of our Sovereigh Lord King James the second's reign. [1687] Bryan [his mark] McLandins

Wit: Geo. Bushell; James Fauntleroy; Susanna Gillett St.Philip