

Will of Henry King Feb. 24th day in the year, 1714:

Know all men by these presence that I, Henry King, being now in my right senses, and in good health, do with the grace of God and my own free will make my last WILL AND TESTAMENT:

WHEREAS, I have a full trace of land called the Log House land, being in Chowan precinct, in the County of Albemarle,

WHEREAS, the above mentioned land, I do freely give unto my three sons MICHAEL KING, HENRY KING, CHARLES KING, and the said land is to be equally divided amongst these three.

And, WHEREAS, I have another piece of land being in Virginia in the County of Nansemond lying between the flat swamp and the third swamp; and whereas there is a part of the said land lies between the flat swamp and the third swamp, and I do give to my two sons MICHAEL KING and HENRY KING, and share and share alike between them two, one by MICHAEL KING, his choice.

And, WHEREAS, the other part of the same tract of land being between and the second swamp and the third swamp, I do freely give to my two older daughters ELIZABETH KING and CATHERINE KING; and they are to choose alike, one by ELIZABETH is to be her choice of the said land; and, I freely give to them the tract of land being in the precinct lying upon the meadow.

WHEREAS, I do freely give to my daughter ELIZABETH one hundred acres of the land; and to CATHERINE one hundred acres of said land.

And, WHEREAS, I do freely give to my daughter ANN KING two hundred acres of the said land.

And, WHEREAS, I do freely give to my daughter MARY KING two hundred acres of the said land.

WHEREAS, this being my last WILL AND TESTAMENT.

Henry King

From under my hand and seal this twenty-five day of Feb. in the year of our Lord, 1714. And sealed and delivered in the presence of these WITNESSES: H.K. Johnson, Christopher Joseph Fox, Jim Hayes. (From N.C. Wills, 1663-1789, Vol. XVLL, p.34.)