

JOHN KING'S WILL

On

"Son JOHN land in Upper Parish of Nansemond, on Sumerton Swamp and land in Albermarle Co. (N.C.) at the head pf Bennett's Creek in the province of North Carolina, if he pay William Folk of Nansemond the money I owe him. Son WILLIAM: land in Chowan in province of North Carolina, Grandson MICHAEL KING (sone of MICHAEL (: land formerly given to my said son " by deed from his mother, JANE KING, and to his brother." Sons ARMISTEAD and CHARLES KING, land in Nansemond bought of William Perry to be sold to pay my debts. Wife Rebecca: Looking Glass which was Major Armistead's (her first husband). Daughther-in-law and her two sons. My three sons William, Armistead, and Charles. Executrix: Wife; also guardian to "My two young sons Armistead and Charles (her children). Executors: Sons John and William. Test: John Robinson, Jr., Miles Cary, William Armistead, Samuel Markham. Original will. "Executors ordered to be summoned May 19, 1736. Capt. JOHN KING, Settlement of Estate-- July 22, 1742. Among other items is: "to a legacy by MR. MICHAEL KING of Nansemond: to pay his debts," etc. (Chapman: "Wills and Administrations of Elizabeth City Co., Va." pp. 62-64, Order Books 1731-47, pp.112,163 and 1734-49, p. 137.)